

ABOUT THE JOINT LOGISTICS PLANNERS COURSE

The Joint Logistics Planners Course (JLPC) is a Joint Staff J4 sponsored course, held at the Army Sustainment University, focused on preparing military and civilians to plan, execute, and control operational-level joint logistics in assignments involving operational and strategic-level joint logistics planning, interservice, multinational logistics support, and joint logistics in a theater of operations. To accomplish this, the JLPC focuses on planning and operates in a contingency and crisis environment. Students will leverage Whole-of-Government (WOG) and the Joint Strategic Planning System (JSPS). Notable additional areas of coverage include risk (to mission and to force), the defense industrial base, joint planning, operations, and development of logistics related documents such as annexes and appendices.

The course is offered in two formats:

RESIDENT: two (2) week class hosted at Army Sustainment University, Fort Lee, Virginia

Mobile Training Team (by special request only): two (2) week class hosted at requestor's location.

Students should expect an average of three hours of self study outside of class, daily, and team collaboration for group projects.

This course awards 1.5 Joint Qualified Officer credits and the "P1" (Theater Logistics Planner) skill identifier (Army officers only).
