

JOINT LOGISTICS FACULTY WORKSHOP

June 13-15, 2023

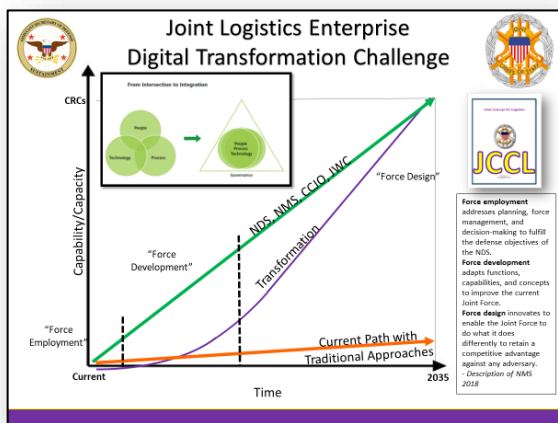

The Joint Logistics Enterprise (JLEnt)

- Insights
- Understand authorities, goals, capabilities and limitations of other JLEnt partners
 - Establish relationships and build trust before a crisis occurs
 - Capitalize on and leverage stakeholder capabilities and resources
 - Be prepared to provide support to other JLEnt partners

National Defense University
300 5th Ave SW Building 62,
Washington, DC 20319

What is the Future of Logistics?

- Opening thoughts/musings
- How to think about the future of Joint Logistics
 - Ukraine, China, Africa, Latin America, Arctic
 - "Supply Chain Management"
 - Time—temporal nature of future conflict
 - AI/ML/Data/Comms/Transformation
 - Plans/global integration/GIDE
 - Commercial Relationships
 - Allies & Partners
 - Logistics Assessment & New Ways of Thinking
 - Climate & Energy
- Closing thoughts, resources and questions

<https://cjsl.ndu.edu>

Data Analytics

Discussions across the logistics community and our academia partners about data analytics

Future of Joint Logistics

Discussions about future logistics curricula, planning, and five-domain warfare

Socialize and Network

Great chance to socialize with the senior leaders of the DoD logistics community

Register Link

<https://go.intelink.gov/ua3KNIU>
Copy and paste URL in browser
* Requires Common Access Card to access

Block of Rooms reserved for workshop at Cambria Hotel Washington D.C. Capitol Riverfront till May 13

POC: John Rios john.v.rios.civ@ndu.edu